Life In Glasgow In Gay Nineties Glasgow-John P. Ward of Glasgow is in receipt of a recent letter

from U. S. Collins, his teacher when the latter taught in the Glasgow school 59 years ago. Mr. Collins, now 83, came to Glasgow in September 1893, and was principal of the grade school here for the next four years. In his well written letter, Mr. Collins recalls the good times he had and the wonderful friends he made while here. In a reminiscent mood, he speaks of the Glasgow Brass Band and the Collins Comedy Co., both of which were much in vogue at that time. He recalls the band members riding in a fine big band-wagon, drawn Mr. Collins states that, like Na vears at Glasgow, one of the bright noon Saturday, continue through an Rev. Orr is a native of Minne-spots in his teaching career, which

Mrs. Ater Hostess To Arcadia Club

Mrs. Bertha Ater was hostess June 11 to members of the Arcadia Woman's club at the club hall with 16 members answering roll call by naming their favorite spice.

Interesting reports of the Federated Woman's club meeting in Jacksonville in May and of the Luncheon for the County Federation at Mac-Murray College were heard, Mrs. Emma Henderson and Mrs. Fred Standley reporting.

Several bills were approved to be paid and the birthday box was opened and a vote taken approving to have the project for another year. Mrs. Lena Thompson gave a report on the Memorial Day program finance and a vote of thanks was extended the program committee. An interesting reading was given by Mabel Clark and Collean Reichart on advice on the Art of Cooking.

The club collect and prayer were given and a contest was enjoyed during the social hour. Mrs. Ater served delicious refreshments and was present were Mrs. Everett Elliott and daughter, Karon, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Miss Ruby Stockson, Lois, Connie, Evelyn and Karon Henderson and Miss Frances

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold McGinnis with Mrs. Stella Orris and Edna Malicoat, program eaders.

Monroe of this city have been advised that their son. Pfc. Everett L. Monroe, was recently awarded the Soldier's Medal for heroism in Korea, not involving actual conflict with the enemy.

Monroe who is with the U. S. Army, Medical Detachment, 45th Division Artillery, 45th Infantry Division was called to the site of a mine field near Chorwon, Korea April 22, 1952. He found three men. only one of whom was still alive. Monroe applied first aid; while doing so, his foct became entangled in a mine's trip wire, but he calmly cut this trip wire with his scissors and continued his work. Realizing that the wounded man needed special medical attention, he carried him down the mine ridden slope to safety. His courage saved the life of a fellow soldier and the citation reads that it showed great credit to himself and his country.

THE STORY: Rosemary Curtis finds murder instead of relaxation on a vacation in the mountains and the motive seems to be a hidden treasure in gold coin buried by early-day immigrants. Soon after Rosemary's arrival, Mrs. Ordell, a college professor's wife, was stabbed and later her body disappears. Rosemary kerself was mistaken for a woman named Elsie Martinson who has been murdered in a nearby village. Now, as she watches beside a small lake, she sees a man wade into the lake and disappear beneath its surface. He fails to reappear.
